

&Beyond expands its Botswana Under Canvas portfolio with two new Okavango Delta camps

NOVEMBER 2025

&Beyond has reimagined luxury safari in the Okavango Delta with the launch of two new intimate camps, &Beyond Sandibe Under Canvas and &Beyond Nxabega Under Canvas. Together with the newly refurbished &Beyond Chobe Under Canvas, they complete a seamless seven-night circuit through Botswana's most iconic wild places, a journey offering a rare combination of adventure, intimacy, and sustainability. Botswana Under Canvas is not a lodge — it's the wild, felt, heard, and breathed — an experience where comfort and wilderness merge so completely that you become part of it.

&Beyond Sandibe Under Canvas is set within one of the Okavango's most wildlife-rich concessions, renowned for year-round sightings of lion, leopard, cheetah and wild dog. Days begin with the calls of the wild and close under a sky dense with stars. Game drives, walking safaris and community visits invite deeper discovery, revealing the pulse of predator country with every step.

Further west, &Beyond Nxabega Under Canvas captures a different mood of the Delta where silence speaks volumes. The Okavango reveals its softer side, with seasonal water-laced floodplains, mokoro glides and the hush of reeds brushing against a wooden paddle. Guests can join mokoro excursions, catch-and-release fishing (offered when water levels permit) or land-based game drives and walking safaris led by experienced guides. Here, the Delta encourages reflection, stillness and connection with nature's gentler rhythm.

The camps are designed for minimal impact without compromising on comfort, offering an intimate experience with just three tents per camp and a maximum of six guests. Each tent features super king beds, double showers and vanities, standing fans, running water throughout and Starlink Wi-Fi – a first for the Botswana Under Canvas offering. Powered by a solar plant and supported by in-room power packs, USB ports and vehicle charging stations, the camp provides reliable connectivity while operating in harmony with the environment. Interiors reflect the Delta's textures and tones, combining earthy greens, light wood, woven fibres and brushed metal to create a refined yet effortless sanctuary that feels completely in tune with the surrounding wilderness.

From the vast elephant herds of Chobe to the predator-rich plains of Sandibe and the tranquil waterways of Nxabega, &Beyond is introducing a seven-night journey that invites both adventure and ease. Shared logistics with neighbouring lodges minimise environmental footprint, while partnerships with the nearby communities of Shorobe, Sexaxa, Gogomoga and Tsububega support employment, mentorship and conservation awareness through Wild Impact, &Beyond's long-standing community and conservation partner. This reflects the brand's enduring ethos of Care of Land, Wildlife and People, ensuring each stay contributes to the wellbeing of both guest and place.

“Our new Botswana Under Canvas camps celebrate safari in its purest form. They are intimate, low-impact and deeply connected to place, and the experience is raw, personal and deeply immersive. The luxuries here are the thoughtful kind - lanterns that glow like stars, fresh bread baked over coals and quiet care that lets the wild take centre stage. Sandibe captures the energy of predator country, while Nxabega reflects the calm of the Delta's waterways. Together with Chobe, they reveal the full spectrum of Botswana's wild beauty.” says Riaan Venter, Southern Africa Regional Manager at &Beyond.

The Chobe and the Okavango Delta: An Under Canvas Adventure itinerary starts from USD 4 840 per person sharing for seven nights. Perfect for families, couples and small groups, the itinerary offers unparalleled seclusion, intimate adventure and a refined connection to Botswana's wild heart in comfort and style.
